

HOW TO DO AN EMERGENCY MOTION TO CLAIM EXEMPTION

Who can file an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption?

Anyone who has a money judgment against them and whose bank account has been frozen as a result of that judgment can file an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption. Your bank account may have been frozen if a creditor filed a Citation against your bank.

What is an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption?

You can file an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption to get access to the money in your bank account for an emergency purpose. An emergency purpose may include a need to pay for your basic necessities like food, rent/mortgage, utilities, etc. You do this by claiming the money is protected by law ("exempt") in your Motion.

How do I know if my money is exempt?

The following money is exempt:

- Social Security, SSI benefits, and disability
- Pension and retirement benefits and refunds
- Public assistance benefits
- Child support
- Unemployment compensation benefits
- Workers' compensation benefits
- Veterans' benefits
- Circuit breaker property tax relief benefits
- Any other source, up to $4,000 ("wildcard exemption")

Who do I notify?

You notify the judgment creditor (or their attorney if they have one) and the bank that is holding your frozen account.

What forms do I need for the Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption?

- Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption: This form asks the court to allow access to the money in your bank accounts because the money is protected by law and removes the bank from your case.
- Notice of Court Date for Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption: The form tells the judgment creditor and your bank that you have filed an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption. It also states the date, time, and place where the judge will hear this Motion.
- Order on Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption: This form is used by the judge to make a decision about whether to allow you access to the money in your bank account.

Fill out the Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption and follow the instructions on the form. You will need the addresses for the judgment creditor and your bank to notify them. See Step 2.

Where can I find the forms I need?

You can find the forms at:

<http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/>.

Does it cost to file a Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption?

- There may be a fee for filing an Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption with the Circuit Clerk.
- If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, you can ask the court to file for free. Fill out the Application for Waiver of Court Fees to ask the court for a fee waiver. This is a separate set of forms you can find at: <http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/>.

What do I do after I fill out the Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption?

Step 1: File your forms with the Circuit Clerk in the county where the court case is filed.

- Ask the Circuit Clerk for a court date, time, and courtroom number for your Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption. This is the time and place your Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption will be heard by a judge.
- Write the courthouse address, court date, time, and courtroom number on the Notice of Court Date for Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption.
- You must electronically file (e-file) court documents unless you qualify for an exemption from e-filing.
 - You will qualify for an exemption if: (1) you do not have internet or computer access at home and it would be difficult for you to travel to a place where you could use a computer, (2) you have a disability that keeps you from e-filing, or (3) you have trouble reading or speaking English.
 - Fill out a Certification for Exemption from E-Filing found here: www.illinoiscourts.gov/Forms/approved/default.asp.
 - File the original and 1 copy of your Motion form, and the Certification, with the Circuit Clerk's office in person or by mail.
- To e-file, create an account with an e-filing service provider.
 - Visit <http://efile.illinoiscourts.gov/service-providers.htm> to select a service provider. Some service providers are free while others charge a processing fee.
 - For instructions on how to e-file for free with Odyssey eFileIL, see the self-help user guides here: http://www.illinoiscourts.gov/CivilJustice/Resources/Self-Represented_Litigants/self-represented.asp

- If you do not have access to a computer, or if you need help e-filing, take your form to the Circuit Clerk's office where you can use a public computer terminal to e-file your form.
 - You can bring your form on paper or saved on a flash drive.
 - The terminal will have a scanner and computer that you can use to e-file your form.

Step 2: Serve notice to the judgment creditor and your bank regarding your Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption.

- The judgment creditor and bank must receive notice of your Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption. A hearing on the Motion cannot take place unless this notice is given.
- Give the judgment creditor and bank copies of the Notice of Court Date for Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption and your Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption.
- Because there may not be enough time to mail these forms, you should either hand-deliver, fax, or email these forms to the judgment creditor and your bank.

Step 3: Go to your court date.

- Your court date, time, and room number are listed on your Notice of Court Date for Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption.
- Bring these items with you to court:
 - A file-stamped copy of the Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption.
 - Order on Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption. Complete the top part of this form only.
 - Copies of the Notice of Court Date for Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption given to the judgment creditor and your bank with the Proof of Delivery signed by you showing when and how they got notice.
 - Any proof that shows the funds in your bank account are exempt as you claim.
- Get to the courthouse at least 30 minutes early.
- Go to the courtroom number listed on your court form. If your forms do not have a courtroom number, look for a list of cases at the courthouse or ask the Circuit Clerk.
- Check in with the courtroom staff and wait for your name and case number to be called.
- When your case is called, step up, introduce yourself to the judge and tell the judge you want them to grant your Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption.
- Explain to the judge the reasons you are claiming your exemption and provide the judge with any proof you have to show your funds are exempt.
- If the judge grants your Motion, give the Order on Emergency Motion to Claim Exemption to the judge.
- Before you leave the courtroom, get a file-stamped copy of the Order.
- Fax, hand deliver, or email one copy of the Order to the judgment creditor (or their attorney if they have one).
- Bring the Order to your bank and ask the bank to release the money in your account.
